

FRAGRANCES

Our traditional blends and unconventional bouquets incorporate exceptional fragrance and essential oils. We blend our oils ourselves, ensuring you will not find our fragrances anywhere else.

BOND GIRLS

After a long day of decoding secret messages, photographing documents with your lipstick camera and seducing foreign dignitaries, a girl like you could use a relaxing bath with this exquisite lavender scent. Soap is enriched with ground oatmeal for skin smoothing and soothing.

BONITA LOCA

"She's really quite pretty...if you can get past the all that crazy." Big hair and blue eye shadow never hurt anyone, but watch out for that huge handbag. Sparkly mint topped with an ample slosh of booze over fresh lemon and crisp apple.

CHIQUITA

Bold and vibrant, this queen of the rainforest has all the hombres crying "¡ay Mami!" A coconut-free blend of tropical fruits. Soap is colored with organic carrot juice.

COLD SHOULDER

Hmpf! Paltry apologies make us laugh! We revile the meager mea culpa! Begging for forgiveness? FORGET ABOUT IT! (Well, maybe we'll reconsider if you're really adorable.) Frosty peppermint intertwined with cozy warm vanilla.

DEVIL'S SNACK CAKES

What do little demons find in their lunchboxes? Honey cakes drizzled with caramel and covered in toasted almonds.

GIRLS WITH GLASSES

Mother can be a bit myopic, especially if she thinks we still wait for boys to ask us out. Vanilla buttercream frosting laced with blackberry.

GIRLS' GUIDE TO COMPROMISE

Well, okay. Fine. Really. O-K! What. Ever. You owe me. Big time. Snappy and slightly bitter, gingered grapefruit yields to summer's sweet honey.

HOLIDAYS ON A PIRATE SHIP

Despite the thrill of the plunder, the sparkling turquoise sea and exotic islanders, sometimes it's difficult to soothe holiday homesick blues. Coconut, rum, Caribbean spice, salty sea breeze with an ample squeeze of fresh orange.

JAPANESE COWGIRL

Konichiwa, Pardner! East embraces West with tart yuzu softened with saddle suede.

LA BELLE REBELLE

A spirited and voluptuous floral, charming and seductive as the beautiful Confederate spy, Belle Boyd. Thick and humid with honeysuckle and roses bursting out the seams.

LORELEI LOVES ORANGES

"After that Spanish ship crashed into my rock, I scored some great citrus. It was a nice change from the usual shipwreck cargo." Teutonic wildflowers and sea moss drown in juicy orange peel.

MISS BEHAVING

Miss Congeniality may have the satin sash, but she'll never have as much fun as Miss Behaving. Wildflower honey infused with vanilla beans.

PACHYDERM

"Mornings at the Elephant Refuge usually begin with running off the ivory poachers and end with a tea & biscuits." Thai coconuts meld with green cardamom.

PLAIN WAYNE

Super Bad Girls know that "Performance" always trumps "Packaging". Dye and fragrance free. Soap is enriched with silk protein and mango butter and has a naturally nutty scent.

PULP

Dangerously curvaceous and provocatively ample, you never forget a Zaftig beauty. Sweet pumpkin, a brush of spice, rich cocoa, black vanilla bean over a bed of sandalwood.

QUEEN OF BROKEN HEARTS

She left me standing with a snow-cone in one hand, cotton candy in the other, a tear in my eye, and a hole in my heart. Bittersweet memories perforated by summer's last rose and sweet confections.

SERPENTS & THE CITY

With her street savvy and savoir-faire, our urban Eve can charm even the slipperiest of snakes right out of their skins. Golden fruits with a sliver of moss.

SOUVENIR

Yeah, you kept his jacket. Best thing you got from that relationship. Fits over your cute sweaters and reminds you to never make that mistake again. Bonus! Mints, a twenty and gloves. Fading masculine cologne over soft leather punctuated with peppermint.

SUMMER BLONDES

Memories of a learner's permit summer — slathered in baby oil, primo spot by the lifeguard, brand new DIY drugstore highlights, waiting for the summer school kids, while sipping an exotic concoction of cola and pink lemonade powder.

TEA & INTRIGUE

You might not earn much as a waitress in a hookah bar, but what you learn is far more valuable. Velvety black tea, tawny tobacco leaf, a touch of smoke, cooled with cucumber.

ZÜRICH 2002

Never particularly caring much for goats, she traded in the braids for a flat iron and a MBA. Assertive mountain mints burst through Alpine spruce and eventually acquiesce to rich, sweet cream.
